Madam,

In your article published on 23rd March you praised the British Board of Film Classification for granting a certificate to to the film "Kids." You failed to mention that the BBFC had insisted on cuts: see enclosed copy letter of 22nd March. The United Kingdom is one of the few countries which still has film (and video) censorship: it has been abolished in all the former Communist States of Eastern Europe.

Yours for Freedom of Expression,

Cllr E Goodman
