Sir,

YOUR CUT TO THE FILM "SEUL CONTRE TOUS"

Why have you decided to maintain the oppressive, insular "No Sex Please We're British" policy for adults in this country, especially when you are on record stating that the British public is becoming much more relaxed about sex? Whom are you trying to protect from what and why, or do you just love censorship for its own sake?

Yours for freedom of expression (even for British adults)

Cllr E Goodman
