Dear Mr Goodman,

Thank you for the letter you sent this August concerning the Government's Freedom of Information Bill.

I agree that the legislation is completely inadequate and is nothing but a shell of the ambitious legislation that the Government promised. This is just another indication of creeping illiberalism within the Labour Party, which, if unchecked, threatens to undermine personal freedom.

I would like to offer my assistance to any upcoming campaigns that the CAC may be launching. Please keep me informed of your plans.

*Yours sincerely,
Evan Harris*
