Dear Madam,

RE: NEWSPAPER KIOSKS ON LONDON UNDERGROUND

Enclosed is a Press report about your protest against indecent displays. The root of the problem is that there is a chronic shortage of licensed sex-shops, where this type of material can be sold without causing offence. This is the result Part II Section 2 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982, which allows local authorities to refuse to grant any sex shop licences. Over half have mistakenly followed such a course. The Act needs amendment.

Yours faithfully,

E Goodman
Chair of CAC
