Dear Superintendent Dawson,

DAILY SPORT ARTICLE OF 27/6/2000

Thank you for your letter of 4th July. I disagree that it is good service to the community to prioritise suppression of harmless activity by consenting adults under an old statute (The Disorderly Houses Act 1751). On the contrary I believe it harms the community by making the police unpopular. Note should be taken of the paper "Setting the Boundaries: reforming the law on sex offences" published in July by the Home Office under the byline "Building a safe, just and tolerant society."

Yours sincerely,

Cllr E Goodman
