2 April 2001

Dear Mr Goodman,

Thank you very much for agreeing to speak on the Ethical Society's lecture programme. I am sorry for the delay in writing to confirm the details discussed in our telephone conversation. The date we settled for the talk is Sunday morning, 29 April at 1100 h with the title:

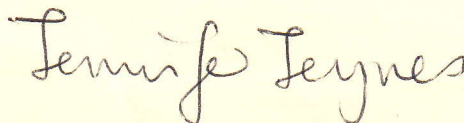

CENSORSHIP IN THE UK

The details for Sunday mornings are that the talk begins at 1100 hrs and lasts usually 45 minutes approx. After a short break for Society announcements, there is a questions and discussion period until 1230 hrs when tea is served. There will be a chairman and there is a payment for expenses of £45 for the lecture and a 2-3000+ word summary of it to appear in the Ethical Record. If it is not convenient to bring a summary with you, then it is fine to send it in a bit later. AV equipment is available if required. I enclose an Ethical Record and details of the Society. Let me know if I can help further.

I am sure our members will be very interested to hear a wide-ranging talk on censorship in the UK and your work as Chairman of the Campaign Against Censorship.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Jennifer Jaynes MSc
Librarian/Programme Co-ordinator
