Dear Anita,

REFORM OF PROSTITUTION LAW

We met briefly at the he Sexual Freedom Coalition Meeting in June. Meanwhile the "Daily Sport" has been running a strange series of articles, examples of which I enclose. If handled correctly, that "news" paper could be a useful ally in campaigning for reform of England's antiquated laws against advertising by prostitutes.

Parliament will be debating a Sexual Offences Reform Bill in October. CAC campaigns for freedom of expression by prostitutes (which the Government opposes). We cannot, however, claim to represent them. You can.

Best wishes,

Ted Goodman, Chair of CAC
(and fellow member of the GMB, but not as sex-worker!)
