

What the Campaign Against Censorship Does

The CAC is in the front line of the struggle against censorship in Britain and the ever-active groups working to restrict our freedom of speech and expression. It gives support to those who fall foul of the existing censorship laws. Members of the CAC appear on TV and radio programmes, and speak at meetings, conferences, and debates on censorship issues. The CAC assists parliamentarians of all major parties by keeping them informed on matters related to censorship, and submits evidence to official committees.

The CAC's website is www.dlas.org.uk and it contains further information.
