

23 Budgen Drive, Redhill
RHI 2QB; 23rd Dec 2005

To: Denise Castelli
Producer-Radar TV
91 Great Eastern Street
London EC2A 3NZ

Dear Madam,

FEBRUARY 2006 CHANNEL 4 DOCUMENTARY

The Libertarian Alliance have informed us of your request for assistance regarding this project. As you have stated, bestiality is lawful in Denmark but not England. Most other types of pornography were, however, legalised here in 2000 when the British Board of Film Classification liberalized the R18 category to allow hard-core material, other than bestiality, sexual violence, under-age material, and/or urination. Full details can be obtained from their Press Office. Paul Goggins, the Home Office Minister is, however, now trying to criminalise mere possession of violent pornography. Details are contained in Page 3 of the enclosed CAC Newsletter of October 2005 and from the Home Office Criminal Law Policy Unit, 2 Marsham Street, London SW1P 4DF (tel 020 7035 6981)

Even nowadays, few people in this country are prepared to discuss pornography in public, certainly not hypocritical British politicians ! Among persons who will be: DR TUPPY OWEN, The Director, SFC (Sexual Freedom Coalition), MB Box Lovely, London WCIN 3XX (telephone: 01997 421019) and DR LUCY ROBINSON, Dept of History, Sussex University (tel 01273 606755 x 7675)

Yours, E Goodman, Chair of CAC.