Dear fellow member
Of the Labour Party,

RE; PROSTITUTION

Further to your recent trip to Sweden, it should be remembered that this country has the biggest prison population in the European Union. It should not therefore be increased it by incarcerating men who pay for sex.

In any event, unlike Sweden, there is no consensus in this country for such a law.

I enclose a copy of my letter to the Home Secretary of 14th September 2007.

Yours fraternally,

E Goodman.
