Dear fellow Labour Party member,

LAP-DANCING VENUES

You are reported as condemning such establishments. Why? They constitute freedom of expression for dancers, who pay to be allowed to perform. In any event they are harmless and popular with patrons, whose right to entertainment of their choice must be respected.

Why have you joined the Orwellian "Anti-Sex League?" Citizens do not want the State to interfere in their private lives.

Yours fraternally,

E Goodman,
Chair of CAC
