Dear Campaign Against Censorship,

I am writing to invite you to a seminar on sex and regulation at the British Academy, London (<http://www.britac.ac.uk/contact/map.cfm>), on February 1, 2011, between 2 and 5 pm.

The seminar is organized by the AHRC funded Onscenity research network.

The seminar focuses on the regulation of sex in relation to three key areas: media, labour, and the internet.

Our speakers will be Laura Agustin, author of Sex at the Margins: Migration, Labour Markets and the Rescue Industry (2007);

Yaman Akdeniz, author of Internet Child Pornography and the Law (2008); and Martin Barker, author of The Video Nasties (1984), Ill Effects: The Media-Violence Debate (2001), and The Crash Controversy (2001).

The seminar is introduced and chaired by Julian Petley, author of Censoring the Word (2007) and Censorship: A Beginner's Guide (2009).

If you would like to attend, please let me know by January 20, 2011 so that I confirm your place.
